

I guess you're right.
You think I'm
just overreacting?

Just a sec, I have
to send a tweet about
how boring you are.

A blue penguin with glasses and a red bow tie sits on a wooden bench. A small blue bird is perched on the bench's arm. The background is a simple landscape with green grass and a blue sky.

Oh, hey
talking bird.

Hey Lars,
what's on your
mind, friend?

Lars

I wake up every morning to read nothing but negative things online.

I can't help but wonder why people can't just get along, you know?

People are animals, Lars!
You can't let it all get to
you. Just focus on doing right by yourself and let
the rest of them wallow
in their misery!
